

Artists Sought for Roles supporting Eco Art In Schools Program
Expression on Interest (EOI)
Close Extended to Friday 9 August 2024

Council is seeking expressions of interests for an artist to assist groups to develop an entry for the EcoStories Competition as outlined below. We are especially interested in artist who can help guide students to develop an artwork. However, students can choose any artform visual, sculpture, mural, performance, music, short story etc.

The EcoStories Competition is being run as part of The Sustainable Futures Network Project This project is engaging preschools, primary and high schools in the Muswellbrook Shire around the theme of sustainability.

The chosen artist will work with children to help them create their artwork. This could mean working with a class to create one mural or working with students on their own individual artworks.

Council requirements for contractors.

The chosen artist must have the following:

- ABN
- Their own insurances eg Public Liability, Income Protection
- Working with Children Check

Selection Process

The Sustainable Futures Network committee will review Expressions of Interest and decide on which artist to engage. The selection criteria used to determine the successful who will be asked to submit a formal quote will be.

- Value for money.
- Experience working on similar projects.
- Likelihood of successfully completing the project on time within the budget.
